I agree to provide a cage or aviary approved by Raven Haven and I agree that it is my responsibility to keep the cage/aviary clean and properly maintained.

I understand by fostering a bird for Raven Haven, I may be asked to relinquish the foster bird at any time for any of the following reasons:

1. If it is believed that the bird is not being taken care of properly.
2. If the bird is declared adoptable and a qualifying home is found.
3. If it is found that the bird has been put in a state of jeopardy at any time or for any reason.

I agree that Raven Haven may check on the welfare of my foster bird at any time as long as I am given notice.

I agree to treat my foster bird with consideration, compassion, love and respect.

I understand that if my foster bird becomes available for adoption, I may be given first consideration for adoption.

I hereby release Raven Haven from any liability related to any damages, injury claims and expenses of any nature arising from the bird(s) placed in my possession by Raven Haven.

By signing this application, I agree to the aforementioned terms:
